

Most gracious God, Creator of all things, Judge of all people, hear our prayers which we offer before you for our kindred, that the light of justice and peace might shine brighter and more steadily throughout our world.

We pray for the leaders of Ukraine, that they might put their trust in you. Lord in your mercy Hear our Prayer

We pray for the soldiers of Ukraine, that you would lead them, that they might follow you in paths of wisdom, courage, and might. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for refugees from Ukraine, that you might deliver them from danger, violence, and oppression. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for the civilians of Ukraine who have stayed behind to defend their homes, that you might strengthen those who stand, that they might remember your great and awesome power. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for those caught in the path of warfare, who are able neither to fight nor to flee, that you might shelter them, that they might know you as the rock of their salvation. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for those who identify Ukraine as their homeland, wherever they now may be, that you might send them words of comfort, that you might be a sanctuary to them in the countries where they have gone. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for those for whom the trauma of past conflicts has been renewed, that, just as we trust that your Spirit groans with each of us, interceding for us in our weakness, so also may they experience your loving guidance and protection. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for the political and economic Leaders of the nations, that you might move them to aid your people in Ukraine. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for aid workers in and around Ukraine, that they manifest to the people the splendor of your provision and care. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for journalists in and around Ukraine, that you might awaken, embolden, and inspire them to tell the news of this conflict with compelling integrity. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for the people of Russia, that you might empower them to intercede with their government on behalf of their kindred in Ukraine. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for Russian soldiers, that you might open their eyes to the work they have been driven to do, that they might see and turn toward their Ukrainian kindred. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

We pray for ourselves as we watch and wait and pray, that you might inspire us to support one another, that we might be tireless in service and prayer, doing what we can do in this time of trial. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father,

S

o n

,

a n

d

H

o

l y

S p